August 27th Picnic: Tickets will go on sale in July – three weeks prior to the picnic. Janet Gerhard has great connections with Holy Family. Judy has purchased a blue recyclable container. This is for cans only. There will be an unicyclist, two clowns and a face painter. Ten game stations will be throughout the grounds for picnic games and prizes awarded. Bingo will be inside for adults and children. Food covered by National Coney Island, $5 for hot dog, chips and pop. Extra hot dogs can be purchased for $3 each. Cotton candy will be made the day before as well as decorating the gym. The Fire Department will be there from 1-3 pm. Tony's neighbor Tim will bring his dog to perform tricks for the crowd.

The Knights will do the 50/50 raffle with funds going to SAW. They will also do the popcorn stand.

Core Members: John is staying on as chair. Denise will represent at council.

Refugees: Four parishes are working together. These refugees have gone through 3-5 years of vetting. The family will get six months of financial support, guidance for school and doctors appointments. Socialization of our community and our culture. It is unknown who will be allowed into the program. Carol will be attending another meeting soon. Many volunteers will be needed.
